Leader Notes:

Context

While the shepherds were tending to the sheep in the fields, they received the best news ever. Angels appeared and announced that the Savior had been born. The shepherds hurried off to find the one that they had heard about. They found Mary, Joseph, and the baby Jesus just as they had been told. The Savior was here! They told everyone what they had seen. They loved Him and told others about Him. They weren't the only ones who show us how to love Jesus in this story. Mary saw all that happened and she "treasured" these things in her heart. She saw God's faithfulness and she loved Him for it. She loved God by seeing all that He was doing in her life and all that He was doing to save the world.

TODAY'S PASSAGE

8 And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. 9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. 10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. 11 Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. 12 This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

13 Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace to those on whom his favor rests."

15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about." 16 So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. 17 When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, 18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. 19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart. 20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told. Luke 2:8-20

Activities

Depending on the size of your group, you may lead each activity two or three times. Not every child may want to participate in the activities. That's okay.

1. Fill Your Heart with what You Love

What You Need: Heart Ornaments, I Love Jesus Activity Page (cut out), crayons, ribbon for the ornament, I Love Jesus Card

What You Do:

- Each kid is going to get a set with Ornament, Activity Page, ribbon and I Love Jesus Card.
- Encourage kids to color pictures of who they love, including Baby Jesus.
- Then they will put all the pictures in their heart.
- You will tie the ribbon on the ornament and attach the I Love Jesus Card.
- Encourage kids to give this to someone who they think needs to know about Jesus.

What You Say "Today we looked at the Christmas Story through the eyes of the shepherds. When they heard about the baby to be born they went to see the Baby and worship God. When you see God working around you, how do you respond? Do you go and worship? When we tell others about what we know about Jesus we are helping them say yes to God and sharing Good News that Jesus is exactly who God said He would be."

2. Practice signing the Memory Verse

What you need: Memory Verse Poster

What You Do:

- Show the poster to the kids
- As you say the words point to them on the poster
- Create simple hand motions to teach toddlers the memory verse. Sample hand motions include "The virgin (act like you are flipping your hair or brushing long hair), will conceive (move hands in front of your belly like motioning a baby bump) and give birth to a Son (swaddle a baby and rock) and they will call him Immanuel (point to the ground, God with us)

Matthew 1:23

- Our memory verse tells us that Jesus was the promised Savior who came to live as a man on earth.

What You Say: Our Bible verse tells us that Jesus was the promised Savior who came to live as a man on earth. We needed Jesus to do this so that we can have peace with God. Jesus' birth, life, death and resurrection allowed us to have life with God forever when we believe.
